Prsentation de l'diteur"Brain is that rare species of complete entertainment that can be both deeply philosophical and buoyantly accessible." - Chanticleer Book s"...an entertaining farce about modern society, a deft, fast-paced tale that will leave self-aware readers giggling." - Publishers Weekly"...ironic, iconoclastic, and pure entertainment from first page to last."The Midwest Book "...full of odd metaphors, literary allusions, and hilarious coincidences... pure fun for the reader." - San Francisco Book Four Time Award-Winning NovelGOLD MEDAL WINNER IN THE 2015 READERS FAVORITE BOOK AWARDSFIRST PLACE WINNER IN THE 2013 USA BEST BOOK AWARDSREADER VIEWS READERS CHOICE

2014 AWARD-WINNERSOMERSET AWARDS FIRST PLACE WINNER 2013It's the classic dilemma of the writer: Do you write what's in your heart or do you write what sells? In this modern age of publishing there is a huge chasm between the best selling authors that are rich beyond their dreams and... well, everybody else. All Daniel Waterstone ever wanted to do was write the great American novel and change the landscape of modern literature forever. He has two literary books in print but no one's buying. His agent won't even accept his latest masterpiece which he poured his soul into: apparently, it's not commercial enough. In a final act of desperation, Daniel decides to write - not what's in his heart but - what he thinks will sell. Boy, did he get that one wrong...Prsentation de l'diteur"Brain is that rare species of complete entertainment that can be both deeply philosophical and buoyantly accessible." - Chanticleer Book s"...an entertaining farce about modern society, a deft, fast-paced tale that will leave self-aware readers giggling." - Publishers Weekly"...ironic, iconoclastic, and pure entertainment from first page to last."The Midwest Book "...full of odd metaphors, literary allusions, and hilarious coincidences... pure fun for the reader." - San Francisco Book Four Time Award-Winning NovelGOLD MEDAL WINNER IN THE 2015 READERS FAVORITE BOOK AWARDSFIRST PLACE WINNER IN THE 2013 USA BEST BOOK AWARDSREADER VIEWS READERS CHOICE 2014 AWARD-WINNERSOMERSET AWARDS FIRST PLACE WINNER 2013It's the classic dilemma of the writer: Do you write what's in your heart or do you write what sells?
